My
RESIDENCE
Case Study

Nested in a small town in South East Herefordshire, a stunning property has been transformed with brand new windows and doors. Courtesy of The Residence Collection and installer Perfect Choice, four windows and three doors have been fitted into this beautiful Edwardian home.

The homeowners chose found the R7 windows system to be the ideal choice due to their flush aesthetic creating a modern and versatile finish with clean, elegant lines, superior acoustic and thermal properties. A charming R7 stable door and two open-in doors with Cassini glass have also been installed to complete the home.

“The rooms in our home are small and now they feel more spacious with new flush interior style of the windows. We were surprised by how in depth the end-to-end process of installing windows really is. Our installer, Perfect Choice, really took their time to ensure every detail from measurements and handles to hinges and hardware were correct.”

Triple glazed windows achieves up to 0.19 u-value
