

ALUMINIUM & PLASTIC SYSTEMS PURCHASE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. APPLICABILITY. These terms and conditions, including the terms and conditions on the face of Buyer's purchase order ("Order"), form a part of such Order and apply to the entire understanding for a purchase of goods or services between Aluminium and Plastic Systems of 25-27 Enterprise Crescent, Lisburn BT28 2BP, Northern Ireland ("Buyer") and the supplier named on the Order ("Supplier"). They replace all other previous agreements between Buyer and Supplier concerning the subject matter of the Order. However, if the Order covers purchasing of the same subject matter under a written agreement between Buyer and Supplier, the terms and conditions of that written agreement apply and supersede the Order terms and conditions. If the Order references any specifications of Buyer or statement(s) of work, these documents are incorporated into the Order and supersede the Order terms if they conflict, unless otherwise agreed in writing by Buyer and Supplier. Any other terms and conditions of Supplier applied through any reference contained on Supplier's acknowledgment, confirmation, invoice or any other documents or form whatsoever are explicitly excluded. All binding documentation controlling the supply relationship between Buyer and Supplier must be in the English language unless agreed otherwise by the parties in writing or required by law.

2. ORDERS. An Order becomes final from the sending of the Order by Buyer to Supplier. Unless prohibited by applicable law, Buyer is entitled to terminate or modify an Order at any time in writing, even after delivery, provided Buyer reimburses Supplier for any reasonable direct costs incurred as a result of such cancellation or modification and Supplier will refund any advance payments made by Buyer. Upon reasonable notice, Buyer has the right to recover any of its property within Supplier's custody or control, at Supplier's expense. Any services performed or goods supplied by Supplier without an Order from Buyer will be at Supplier's own risk and cost. The term of the Order is as stated on its face or, if not so specified, the Order commences on the date of the Order and continues until the last goods or services supplied under it are delivered.

3. VOLUMES. Buyer will not be obliged to purchase any minimum volume of goods or services unless the Order specifically indicates otherwise. Forecasted volumes will not be binding on Buyer. Supplier must advise Buyer immediately if there is any shortage in the supply of raw materials, goods, resources or personnel necessary to fulfil the Order, and present an action plan to Buyer to remedy the shortage.

4. DELIVERY. Supplier must deliver the goods and/or services to Buyer according to the Order, including but not limited to volume, price, delivery date, delivery terms, time and location. All goods delivered by Supplier must comply with the specifications or statement(s) of work attached to the Order or separately communicated to Supplier and agreed by Supplier or accepted without protest. Quantity, delivery date and time of performance are essential conditions of the Order and time of delivery and/or performance of the Order is of the essence. Supplier will provide any drawings, instructions, descriptions, deliverables, calculations, control certificates and certificates of conformity or analysis, customs clearance documentation and any other documents relating to the goods or services reasonably required by Buyer.

5. INSPECTION, ACCEPTANCE, AND REMEDIES. Buyer has a reasonable period of time after delivery to inspect and accept the services. Buyer may inspect the goods delivered for external damage to packaging, correct identity and correct quantity in due course of business and notify Supplier of any such deficiencies in a reasonable time. Buyer will notify Supplier of further defects in a reasonable time after discovery. Buyer's receipt of goods or services or its inspection or non-inspection of or payment for the goods or services will not constitute acceptance of the goods or services and will not impair Buyer's right to (i) reject nonconforming goods or services, (ii) recover damages and/or (iii) exercise any other remedies to which Buyer may be entitled. Buyer does not waive any of its rights or remedies resulting from any breach of the Order by accepting the goods or services. Rejected goods may be returned to Supplier or otherwise disposed of at Supplier's sole cost and expense and Supplier will refund Buyer all amounts paid by Buyer for the rejected goods. If the delivered goods or services do not comply with one or more of the warranties under section 13 of these terms and conditions and without prejudice to Buyer's other rights under applicable laws, the Order, or these terms and conditions, Buyer may reject the goods or services and at Buyer's sole option and at Supplier's expense: (a) Supplier will replace or repair the goods and/or services as necessary to make them compliant with the warranties or refund Buyer all amounts paid for the rejected goods, and/or (b) Buyer may procure replacement goods or services at Supplier's expense, and/or (c) Buyer may terminate or modify the Order.

6. RISK OF LOSS AND TITLE TO THE GOODS. Except as otherwise stated in the Order, Supplier retains the risk of loss and/or damage to the goods until the goods are physically delivered to Buyer's stated place of delivery. Buyer will obtain full title to the goods upon physical delivery of the goods to Buyer's stated place of delivery, unless payment is made sooner, in which case title will pass to Buyer when payment is made.

7. PRICES AND TAXES. Prices are as stated in the Order. Prices are fixed and firm. Unless stated otherwise in the Order, prices include (i) all costs to comply with the terms and conditions of the Order, (ii) any and all taxes, including sales, use, excise, value added and other taxes, and (iii) fees, duties, or other governmental charges on the sale of the goods or services covered by the Order. If Buyer is required to pay any taxes or other charges related to the purchased goods or services in addition to the price indicated in the Order, Supplier will promptly reimburse Buyer, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

8. INVOICING AND PAYMENT. Supplier will invoice Buyer for the amounts due under the Order. All Supplier invoices must clearly state Buyer's Order number and any other information Buyer may reasonably require. Buyer will pay Supplier all undisputed and all properly documented invoices in 60 days end of month from the date of the invoice or within such lesser period of time as is required by applicable laws. If the payment due date falls on a holiday or weekend, payment shall be made on the following business day. Buyer retains the right to withhold payment of all disputed amounts. Buyer has the right to set off its claims against the amounts due and claims of Supplier. If Buyer fails to make a payment due to Supplier under the Order by the due date, Buyer shall pay interest on the overdue sum from the due date of payment of the overdue sum, whether before or after judgment. Interest under this section shall accrue at 3% a year above the Bank of England's base rate from time to time. Where a payment is disputed by Buyer, interest is only payable after the dispute is resolved, on sums found or agreed to be due, from 14 days after the dispute is resolved until payment.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY. Supplier agrees to keep confidential the terms and conditions of the Order and all confidential or proprietary information disclosed by or on behalf of Buyer or otherwise learned or obtained by Supplier in connection with the Order or its performance for the maximum length of time permitted by applicable law or 10 years following the expiration or termination of the Order, whichever is longer. Supplier will not use any of this information other than to perform the Order and will not disclose any of this information except as required by law and then only after written notice to Buyer (to the extent permitted by applicable law). Supplier is responsible for any unauthorised disclosure of Buyer's confidential or proprietary information by itself, its affiliates and subsidiaries, its employees, its agents, or its subcontractors. When the Order is terminated or expires, Supplier will promptly return to Buyer all information, documents and materials received by or on behalf of Buyer including all electronic data. Information will not be considered as confidential if it is: (a) lawfully obtained by Supplier from a third party without restriction; (b) developed independently by Supplier without the aid, application or use of Buyer's confidential or proprietary information; or (c) publicly available when received or subsequently becomes publicly available through no fault of Supplier.

10. PROPRIETARY INFORMATION AND MATERIALS. All materials, including but not limited to drawings, specifications and other copyrightable documents and any moulds, dies, tools, equipment, samples, recipes, trade secrets, patents, trademarks or the like, furnished by or on behalf of Buyer are for use by Supplier solely with respect to the Order. Supplier (i) does not have any rights to or interest in the materials except to the extent necessary to execute the Order, (ii) is responsible for maintaining the materials in proper working order subject only to normal wear and tear, (iii) unless otherwise provided by applicable law, will not reverse engineer, disassemble, deconstruct, examine or decompile all or any portion of the materials provided by Buyer and (iv) upon completion (or earlier cancellation or termination) of the Order, must promptly destroy or return the materials, as requested by Buyer.

12. DATA PRIVACY. Neither party envisages sharing or transferring any personal data under the Order beyond the limited amount of personal data needed to appropriately administer and fulfil the terms of the Order. Supplier and its employees, agents and subcontractors must comply with all applicable privacy and data protection laws and regulations and not put Buyer in breach of these laws or regulations. Supplier shall not transfer personal data to any 3rd party without the prior written consent of Buyer. To the extent that fulfilment of the Order requires further processing of personal data Buyer and Supplier will enter into a separate agreement.

13. ANTI-BRIBERY. 22. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING. Supplier may not assign, transfer or subcontract its rights and obligations under the Order without Buyer's prior, written consent. Any approved subcontracting, transfer or assignment does not release Supplier from its obligations under the Order. Buyer may assign or transfer all or any of its rights or obligations under the Order to any affiliate or subsidiary of Buyer and Supplier gives its consent to such assignment or transfer.

23. SEVERABILITY. If any provision of the Order is held by any court to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, either in whole or in part, that will not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of the remaining provisions, or any part thereof, of the Order, all of which will remain in full force and effect.
